Sunday, January 16, 2022, 3:00 - 4:30 PM (Eastern) Please be cognizant of applicable time zones*

CHAIRS
Dale C. Godby, PhD and Melissa Black, PhD
Group Analytic Practice of Dallas

PANELISTS

Anna Faubion, MD and Matt Faubion, MD (3rd year psychiatry residents. SON 8 MONTHS) USA

Maria Puschbeck-Raetzell (Clinical psychologist, psychoanalyst, and group analyst in training and Lennart Raetzell, business owner and consultant. SONS 6 YEARS AND 6 MONTHS) GERMANY

Melissa Wallace, MD (Psychiatrist in private practice and Brandon Wallace, oil and gas analyst. SON 30 MONTHS) USA

How do group therapists in training or private practice manage the issue of pregnancy, parental leave, and having children while actively providing patient care? How do clinicians in Europe differ from those in the US? This webinar, co-chaired by Dr. Dale Godby and Dr. Melissa Black, will present a panel of three professional couples grappling with the challenges of parenthood, childcare, and professional practice. After a 30-minute conversation among the presenters, we will invite the webinar participants into the conversation.

Participation for members is free. Participation for nonmembers is $60.00. 1.5 CE credits are available at $30 for members or $60.00 for nonmembers.
